QUINCY, PLUMAS CO., CAL.
SATURDAY, OCT. 13, 1866.

EASTERN ELECTIONS.—On Tuesday last, elections were held in the States of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Iowa, and in Nebraska. The four States are entitled to 60 Members of Congress, and are at present represented in that body by 47 Republicans and 13 Democrats—thus: Ohio, 17 Republicans and 2 Democrats; Pennsylvania, 16 R's and 8 D's; Indiana, 8 R's and 3 D's; and Iowa by 6 Republicans. The disparity in the popular vote in these States, however, is not so great as would appear from the difference in representation. The Repubs underdressed in representation. The Repubs underdressed in representation. The Repubs underdressed in representation.

A change, or the election of Democrats or Conservatives in twenty-five of the districts now represented by Radicals, would throw the present dominant party into a minority in the popular branch of the Federal Legislature. The great and absorbing question, therefore, now is—will that change be effected? On its decision much—very much—depends; no less, in fact, than the permanence of our present form of government. It will determine whether the full and perfect restoration of the Union of the States shall be at once accomplished—the Constitution preserved—and peace, harmony and prosperity prevail throughout the entire Union; or, whether nearly one third of the members of that Union—eleven independent, sovereign States—shall be held and treated as conquered provinces—the Constitution violated and trampled upon—the President impeached for his faithful defense of that sacred compact and the people's rights—and all the powers of the government—legislative, executive and judicial—usurped by a Congressional Cabal, one of whose members will be placed as a puppet in the Executive Chair to perform its high behests! This is no fancy sketch—no mere chimeras of the imagination, but a sober, serious view of the subject, and the realization of which is not to be looked for in the dim, distant and uncertain future. It is near at hand—even at our very doors.

THE SHERIFFALTY.—The Supreme Court of this State, composed of five men supposed to be learned in the law, have reversed their own decision in the Sheriff's election case of this county, rendered in May last, and have declared that Mr. Stephen J. Clark was duly elected Sheriff of Plumas county at the last election. Their decision has not been published in full, and we are therefore unable to state the grounds upon which they reversed their decision. There has not been one particle of new evidence in the case before them since their first decision was rendered. The same statements, evidence & arguments used on the first trial of the cause, were used on the last: not a particle more or less. Hence the act of reversal seems passing strange. It may be possible that they did not, and they undoubtedly should have done, examine fully the merits of the case on the first trial, for it cannot be possible that any outside influence could have caused the change. Neither can it be possible (?) that political prejudices could have influenced them in the matter. Not having seen their decision, and not wishing to express any opinion which might be considered a "contempt of Court," no matter what our private opinion may be, (they cannot find a man for contempt without it is expressed,) it is useless to make any comments on the subject at present.

As the case now stands, we are willing to admit that "we are sick—send for McGinness." P. S. There is no danger of the disease proving fatal.

EXEMPTION FROM TAXATION.—Under the new Internal Revenue law the following occupations and manufactures are exempt from taxation: Milliners, tailors, boot and shoe makers working for customers, whose sales do not amount to over $1,000 per annum, manufacturers of agricultural implements, tin cans made for preserved meats, fruits, etc., printing paper, printed matter, quicksilver, slaughtered cattle, sheep and hogs, brooms, bristles, cordage, ships, oakum, petroleum, wooden packing boxes, coal, mineral water in bottles or sold from fountains, founders' patterns, sails, tents, awnings, etc., savings' banks deposits, repairs of articles, turpentine, umbrellas, etc.

HEAVY TAXATION.—The Call estimates that annually there is five hundred and fifty millions of dollars collected for Federal purposes; three hundred millions of dollars for State, county and city purposes; making eight hundred and fifty millions of dollars, equal to $45.50 for every man woman and child in the United States annually collected in taxes. A larger tax than any other people in the world pay.

SOME INCOME.—Andrew T. Stewart's (of Y.) income is larger than the annual salaries combined of the President of the United States, the Governors of all the States, Senators and Congressmen, State officers, and members of the Legislatures of the different States. Out of such an income, Mr. Stewart could pay the entire expenses of several State Governments as easily as many men now support their own families.

THE MOUNTAIN MESSENGER complains of the Grand Lecturer, Rev. G. B. Taylor, to the order of Good Templars. It says that by his friends he is working great injury to the cause. None but the most upright and honorable men ought to be employed in a cause which is second in importance to religion only. This lecturer is charged openly with swindling, and when such a man is identified with a cause it is hard to calculate the damage which it must sustain. (Oakland News)

Newspaperdom.

The best newspaper in the State, the Sacramento Union, has entered upon its 32d vol. The S. F. Times has not yet made its appearance. The owners are doubtless waiting for the returns of the elections in the East. The Bulletin and Alta, the twin Micawbers, of San Francisco, are still upon the fence, waiting for something to turn up. The Amador Dispatch has been enlarged and otherwise greatly improved. It is Democratic, and if the Marysville Express is not willing to accept the situation. The Sierra Advocate is getting to be a live newspaper. During the past two months it has greatly improved in every respect. The Sage Brush still keeps the election laws in its columns as a standing advertisement. Longmore publishes a better paper than could be expected from the pecuniary support he receives. The Chico Courant will soon be compelled to enlarge; it is getting filled up with paying advertisements. The Butte Record is one of the best county papers in the State, and deserves a very liberal support. The Tehama Observer still occasionally whines. The Independent shows signs of prosperity. McDonough Houck has retired from the Yreka Union. The Trinity Journal reaches us about twice in four months. The Appeal is still flinging on its barp of one string—the rights of the negro. The Youth's Companion has been enlarged and its name changed to The Pacific Pioneer & Youth's Literary Companion. The Morning Call is giving the other San Francisco papers a great amount of trouble. The Golden Era is the best literary paper in the State, and grows better as it grows older. The Police Gazette is full of criminal news and sensation paragraphs. The Dramatic Chronicle will soon be one of the leading dailies of San Francisco. The American Flag is pitching into Gov. Low, and handling him without gloves, on the subject of railroads. It also imagines that President Johnson is trying to play it out of existence. No such fate will overtake it; it has made the "turn," and is out of danger. The S. F. Examiner is the most readable of all the S. F. dailies. It is ably conducted, and is in a prosperous condition. The Occidental is showing up the mismanagement of the public schools. If perseverance will accomplish anything, "Zack" will straighten out the school matters in this State. He occasionally writes a ponderous, sledge hammer political article. The San Andreas Register is jubilant over the order of the Supreme Court removing the county seat of Calaveras from Mokelumne Hill to San Andreas. The Pajaro Times has caused their horns a little. It is a wide awake paper. The Santa Clara Argus is a handsome paper and well conducted. The Mt. Democrat reaches us semi-occasionally. We miss it. The Gold Hill News has "dropped" again. The Colusa Sun still shines, and is a luminary of some magnitude. The Sacramento Bee is as busy as ever; it is not a drone, and is one of our best exchanges. The Mt. Messenger is going backward as a local newspaper. The Oakland News and Napa Register are publishing dailies.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.—The Canadian volunteers, having no longer any fears of a Fenian raid, have commenced disbanding. Louis V. Bogz, of St. Louis, has been appointed Commissioner of Indian Affairs in place of Cooley. Gen. Dix has formally accepted the French mission, and will leave for Paris the last of this month. A good appointment. Atty. Gen. Stanbery gives an opinion that the contract entered into by Harlan, late Sec. of the Interior, with the Connecticut Emigration Co., for 800,000 acres of Cherokee reserve lands in Kansas at $1 per acre, cannot be sustained. A Radical swindle nipped in the bud. The N. York Times on the 7th came out directly, it is reported, for Fenton and the regular Republican nominees. Like the S. Francisco friends of the President, who support him by voting for his enemies. They are connecting New Foundland with Nova Scotia by telegraph. By treaty, Italy acquires the Venetian frontier, and Austria assumes the debt of 35 millions florins. The former grants an amnesty to all political prisoners. There is a terrible famine in India. In Calcutta, 20,000 persons are subsisting on charity daily. In Bombay, 900 dead bodies are picked up in the streets each morning. During the week ending July 31st, 7,530 deaths occurred. Secretary Seward retires temporarily from the State Department, to regain his health, and his son Frederick W. is acting Secretary. The N. York Herald says that Col Lopez has gone to Matamoros to receive consignments of arms which have been dispatched from New York and Philadelphia. Large quantities of arms and supplies have reached the Mexican frontier for Juarez's army at Monterey and other places. Juarez is at Chihuahua, preparing for an early departure for Monterey. The President has appointed the 29th of November as a day of thanksgiving and praise to God for all his mercies and benefits. If the Radical destructives succeed in the Oct. and Nov. elections, the day should be observed as one for humiliation, fasting and prayer. Commodore Stockton died at Princeton, N. J., on the 7th inst., aged about 70. He entered the navy in 1811, and, by meritorious conduct gradually rose to the position of Post Captain, or Commodore, which he held until 1849, when he resigned, and was subsequently elected to the United States Senate; but resigned his seat in 1853, having retained it only about two years. His operations on this coast in 1846-7, are well known. The steamer Luella passed Leavenworth, Oct. 4th, with two and a half millions of treasure from Montana. Gen. Tom Thumb's infant daughter died recently in England. In Candia, the insurrection has not progressed, although blood has been shed. There have been great inundations in France, and it was feared that the waters had not reached their full height. Telegraphic communication between Central and Southern France was extremely difficult.

NEW PHYSIOGNOMY, or "SIGNS OF CHARACTER," as manifested through Temperament and External Forms, and especially in the "HUMAN FACE DIVINE." One elegant volume, with nearly 800 pages, and 1000 illustrations. By S. R. Wells, Editor PNEUMOLOGICAL JOURNAL. Price, post paid $5. Address FOWLER & WELLS, No 389 Broadway, New York.

New Physiognomy is eminently practical, fully illustrated, and well suited to the wants of all. In the study of "the face" the reader soon learns to read each and every feature. Noses are classified as the Roman, Greek, Jewish, Snub and Celestial. The eyes speak all languages, whether black blue, brown or hazel. In a like manner cheeks, neck, hands, feet, walk, voice, laugh, etc., are shown to be "signs of character." In no other work is so much light thrown upon the character and destiny of mankind as in this, or the distinctive traits of nations and tribes so clearly pointed out. Portraits of distinguished persons of ancient and modern times, with biographical sketches and delineation of character, are given. DRINKERS, ORATORS, STATESMEN, WARRIORS, ARTISTS, POETS, PHILOSOPHERS, INVENTORS, SURGEONS, DISCOVERERS, ACTORS, MUSICIANS, etc., are included. It is an "Encyclopedia" of biography, acquainting the reader with the career and character of many great men and women of the past 1,900 years, and of the present—such, for instance, as Aristotle, Julius Caesar, Shakspeare, Washington, Napoleon, Franklin, Bancroft, Bryant, Longfellow, Irving, Rosa Bonheur, Theodosia Burr, Colburn, Bright, Lawrence, Bolivar, Whately, Thackeray, Dow, Knox, Richardson, Hopper, Buckle, Dickens, Victoria, Wesley, Carlyle, Motley, Mill, Spencer, Thomson, Guthrie, Alexander, and hundreds of others. AGENTS WANTED. Book sent by return post or express, on receipt of Price.

At LAST.—The telegraph informs us that the President has at last commenced to "deal kindly" with the Radical Federal office holders in this State. Several new appointments have been made, and more are daily expected.

LOCAL ITEMS.

THANKS.—To "Johnny," the driver of the La Porte Passenger Train, for favors.

PREACHING.—Rev. Mr. Spies will preach in the Court room to-morrow, at 11 o'clock.

FESTIVAL.—The Lodge of Good Templars in Taylorville, intend holding a Festival on Thursday next.

CAMP MEETING.—A Camp Meeting, under the auspices of the M. E. Church, was held in Honey Lake Valley last week.

FOR THE STATES.—Thomas Haggard, an old resident of the East Branch, in this county, left on Thursday last to visit his old home in Tennessee.

NOMINATED.—Hon. C. C. Goodwin has received the nomination for Dist. Attorney by the Union Convention in Washoe county, Nevada.

LOCATED.—Rev. A. L. S. Bateman, who during the past two years has been residing in Indian Valley, is now located at Carson Valley, Nevada.

NOMINATION.—Rev. A. N. Fisher, formerly the Presiding Elder of this district, has received the nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction in Nevada.

NEXT WEEK.—"Down in the Ocean-bed," a piece of beautiful poetry sent us by a correspondent, will be published next week. It was received too late for this issue.

RACES.—See advertisement of three days' racing to come off over the Taylorville Course, Indian Valley, on Oct. 30th, 31st, and Nov. 1st. A Grand Ball will be given at the Vernon House at the close of the races.

FEDERAL TAXES.—J. S. Root, the Deputy Federal Tax Collector of this county, gives notice that he will be at the Vernon House, Taylorville, Oct. 15th, to receive taxes; at Greenville, on the 16th; and at Quincy, on the 18th, 19th & 20th.

INCREASING.—The indebtedness of Lassen co., like that of Plumas, is steadily increasing. According to the Treasurer's report for the quarter ending Sept. 30th, the total indebtedness of that county was $16,122.77.

NOBODY HURT.—On Sunday night last, some fellow who was full to overflowing with fighting whiskey, got miffed at some remark and went after his six-shooter, which, after brandishing about for a few seconds, he replaced. Nobody was killed or mortally wounded.

NEW FIRM.—Messrs. W. J. Bradford and J. Walker Jr. have purchased the Blacksmith shop, stock, tools, etc. in this town formerly owned by John Walker, and will carry on the business as usual. Mr. W.'s health is such that he is not able to work at his trade.

NEW TRIAL.—We learn that a petition for a new trial in the Sheriff Election case, in this Co., will be filed in the Supreme Court. After so many different judgments or decisions rendered by the Supreme Court in the matter, we do not think the petition for a new trial can be denied by them.

PLEAD GUILTY.—Mr. McDonald, a warrant for whose arrest for selling liquor to Indians was issued on Saturday last, plead guilty to the charge, and was fined $10, or ten days' imprisonment in the county jail. He concluded that he could not make four dollars per day easier than by going to jail, and accordingly went to board at the county's expense.

SMASH UP.—On Tuesday last, a fruit and vegetable peddler named Bellows started with his team to go down the North Canon road from Round Valley, when by some accident the wagon ran over the side of the road, and turned a dozen or more commercial before it reached the bottom of the canon. The horses broke loose from the wagon and were not injured, but the wagon was badly used up.

REPORT.—It is reported that an old citizen of Plumas, who has of late been stopping at San Francisco, has been appointed an agent of a company of capitalists in that city, who have placed $10,000 at his disposal, to be invested by him in some of the undeveloped quartz ledges and mines in Plumas county. Our word for it, that company is composed of sensible men, and their investments will prove to be remunerative.

READ IT.—We call the attention not only of our ready readers but of the Bay papers, to the communication of "Prospector" published on the first page of this paper. The subject is one of deep interest to the people in this section and to capitalists generally throughout the State, and the statements of the writer, who is a practical miner and an honest man, may be implicitly relied upon.

PARTICULARS.—The man who was injured in Judkins & Kellogg's quartz ledge, at Round Valley, a notice of which appeared in our last issue, was not as seriously injured down the shaft, but on the sides several times, beaking its force, and was also struck by the bulge or side of the shaft. His collar bone was broken, and his side and arm were badly bruised. Dr. Vaughan informs us that he will probably be able to work again in a month or so. His name is Martin.

No Court.—Judge Sexton has had an attack of the chills and fever, a disease common to the citizens of Oroville and vicinity, and has in consequence been confined to his room nearly all the time for the past week. The Judge not being able to go to Lassen this week, no term of District Court will be held for that county this fall. It will not act as a great hardship, except to parties in that county who have divorce suits pending. As a matter of course they will feel sadly disappointed. But one civil case, besides the divorce cases, has been commenced since the last term of court in that county.

ANALYST AND BATTERY.—John Kenyon filed a complaint against D. L. Haan before Judge Hersey on Tuesday last, charging him with an assault and battery upon him. A jury trial was demanded. Twelve jurors were impaneled, who, after hearing the evidence and the arguments of the attorneys in the case, retired, and after having been out about two hours, came into court and stated that they could not agree upon a verdict. They were thereupon discharged, and the case postponed until the 24th instant. The jury stood 9 for conviction and 3 for acquittal.

Since the above was in type, the defendant went before Judge Hersey and pleaded guilty as charged in the complaint. Whereupon he was fined $5 and costs of suit, amounting to $56.

Death of Frederick Howard of La Porte.

"It is too late; the life of all his blood is touched corruptly; and his pure brain (Which some suppose the soul's frail dwelling house)."

Doth, by the idle comments that it makes, Foretell the ending of mortality."

Such, substantially, were the sad tidings, which on the morning of Friday, the 5th instant, reached us, far away, concerning the approaching dissolution of our dear, departed friend, and the inextinguishable routine and uncertainty of the law denied us the mournful pleasure of hastening to his dying bedside, and of being present at that solemn and affecting leave-taking, which is said to have taken place between him and the friends who were gathered around him, before he vanished from our sight forever, to his distant home beyond the skies. And then, again, on the evening of the following Sunday, came the still sadder intelligence that he was laid in his final resting place that afternoon, having, while surrounded by a large number of his warmly attached and sorrowing friends, calmly departed this life at 1 o'clock, A. M., on Saturday, the 6th day of Oct.

Some time before his death, those who knew him best thought they perceived some indication of a slight aberration of mind, but immediately preceding and up to the moment of that sad event, he had recovered and preserved the perfect use of his faculties, having calmly and affectionately bid adieu to his friends, and very intelligently and deliberately directed the manner of his dress and burial, and that his mother and other near relatives at home be written to and informed of his death.

For some time past, Mr. Howard was ailing from general debility of the system, and he became aware of some symptoms of paralysis, with which malady he was partially prostrated about two months before his decease.

It must afford his distant relatives consolation, and in some degree mitigate the poignancy of their grief, to know that, though he was dying far away from them on the shores of the Pacific, yet kind and anxious friends were ever near to soften his couch of pain, and to attend to his slightest wants, and do for him all other things which his condition required, as they would have done; and also, that his obsequies were commensurate with unusual economy and respect, his funeral having been attended by the Masonic fraternity of this place, and by the Grattan and Shamrock Circles of the Foreign Brotherhood of La Porte and Howland Flat, as well as by the citizens generally of this and other surrounding towns, and having been the largest and most respectable ever known to have taken place here.

The deceased was a native of Boston, Massachusetts, and was about thirty-eight years of age at the time of his death. He was not in the habit of speaking much of his family; but whenever he did, it was always with pride, affection and respect. It is, however, well understood here, that he was descended from a respectable family, being related on the father and mother's side to men who moved in and adorned the highest walks of society, both in his native State and in other portions of the Union. His mother is now Mrs. Horatio Copeland, and resides at present at Easton, Mass. He has, also, at the same place, a brother Thomas, who served with credit as a lieutenant in the late war, and two married sisters, who, it is believed, are now residing in his native city.

Mr. Howard was a first class painter, having in early life learned that trade in all its branches, although he never followed the business here. He possessed talents of a high order, a fine business capacity, and, under other and more favorable circumstances, might have filled with honor almost any position in the State.

He came to California in 1850, and remained for a short time in Nevada county, whence he removed to St. Louis in the county of Sierra, where he became one of the original owners of the American Co.'s Ditch. In 1853 he came to La Porte, where, from that time to the year '59, he was engaged in the mercantile business with J. A. Johnson, Esq. From the autumn of 1859 to that of 1861, he was, under P. White, Esq., Under-Sheriff of Sierra county, the duties of which office he discharged with marked ability and credit to himself. From the latter year until the time of his demise, he was connected with the Grattan Lodge in the management of that county's legal business at their office in La Porte. He also held the position of Justice of the Peace here for many years, having been repeatedly and unanimously elected to that office by the people of this community, with whom he was deservedly popular. By his integrity, and extensive practical legal knowledge, he shed a lustre upon and dignified that much-abused office; and, even while on his death bed, he actually discharged the duties pertaining to it, the people insisting upon his relieving their grievances before him for redress, but being fully conscious and assured that, in his court, intelligence and justice prevailed over the determination of every cause.

The deceased was a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity, and one of the oldest of those of Altamira Lodge in this town. He was likewise a member of the Grattan Circle of the Foreign Brotherhood in this place, and both orders assembled in great numbers to honor him at his funeral, especially by their grand and imposing ceremonies, displayed with a pomp and magnificence never known before on any similar occasion here, showed the high estimation in which the deceased was held among them, and that he was an ordinary member of the order.

Mr. Howard was a man of an eminently liberal nature, and generous instincts; always as rational and moderate in the expression of his own opinions, as he was in his treatment of others. His mind was constantly flowing in a channel of an enlarged and enlightened liberality. Born in a State which went to extremes in many things, he was proud of her historic virtues and fame, without maintaining her errors or partaking of her prejudices. Social in the highest degree; sincere and constant in his friendships, his friends were warm and many, his enemies few. Generous to a fault, he was as slow to do as he was quick to forgive injury. Foremost in promoting and advocating every liberal and benevolent object, he contributed and gave, while he had himself, nor did want or distress ever present itself to him in vain and go empty away.

"Nor further seek his virtues to disclose, Or draw his frailties from their dread abode, There they alike in trembling hope repose, The bosom of his Father and his God."

He died with wonderful calmness and resignation, and as the bird to its sheltering nest, or the sailor on the billows abroad, So his spirit hath flown from this world of unrest, To repose in the bosom of God."

No one ever died in this community so universally regretted, or so fondly loved, as "Fred." With those who knew him best, and with whose daily life he was more intimately associated and blended, this was especially true. Among them, at least, though the lesser grief of others may fade and vanish, his name shall not soon be forgotten, nor his memory pass away. For

"It is not the tear that at this moment shed, When the cold turf has just been laid o'er him, That can tell how beloved was the friend that's fled, Or how deep in our hearts we deplore him. 'Tis the tear through many a long day wept, 'Tis the life's whole path o'er-shaded, 'Tis the one remembrance fondly kept, When all lighter griefs have faded."

Oct. 9th, 1868.

SEWARD is reported convalescent.
